2022 Camp Meeting

ONE WEEK five camps

FAMILY CAMP

Family Camp mingles the generations for spiritual renewal and fellowship with rich teaching morning and evening. Traditional hymn-singing and contemporary music are lifted up in praise and worship in the 109 year old open-air Nixon Tabernacle

CHILDREN'S CAMP

The Childrens Program runs simultaneously alongside Family Camp, for toddlers through elementary school. Services and activities are offered during morning and evening worship, and special family activities each afternoon.

YOUTH CAMP

Youth Camp is a week long residential camp for grades 7-12. Experience Christian teaching, music, worship, small group, recreation and fellowship with other youth who share Christian values.

TWEEN CAMP

Tween Camp is aimed at offering 5th, 6th and 7th graders a taste of residential camping. This camp experience gives tweens a space to learn about Jesus, fellowship and worship with their age group. Preparing them to be young men and young women for the Lord. Times of praise and recreation might be combined with Youth Camp.

GRADE 13 CAMP

Grade 13 is open to young adults post high school to 24 yrs old. In a group tenting environment, all will have an opportunity to dig deep in devotion and grow relationships in a worship and recreational setting.

2022 Camp Meeting

July 22 - July 31

Share ten days of fellowship and inspiration... or come for just one, two, or three days!

Whether participating for the first time, or returning for your annual camp meeting, come experience Simpson Park Camp Meeting as we host our 157th year.

Our rustic, back-to-nature setting invites families to pull away from hurried lives. Come experience a sense of God's presence that quiets the mind and spirit.

SPEAKERS AND LEADERS

TABERNACLE

Victor Hamilton

Dr. Victor Hamilton taught for over 35 years at Asbury University reaching thousands of students. He served as the Professor of Old Testament and Theology and professor emeritus of Old Testament at Asbury. Victor has had the privilege to lecture and preach at a number of other college campuses, as well as speak in churches, retreats, pastors' seminars, family conferences, camp meetings, and overseas. He has authored many books that mainly focus on the Old Testament and its teachings.

Ken Nash

Dr. Ken Nash serves as the Lead Pastor at Cornerstone Church in Caledonia, MI. Prior to that he pastored at Watermark Wesleyan near Buffalo, New York. He has taught at dozens of conferences around the country throughout his 20 years as pastor and is currently coaching many multi-site church planters. Having written his dissertation on multi-site ministry through his doctoral studies, Ken is well versed in the fluid dynamics at work in this form of outreach.

YOUTH

Leo Robinson

We are excited to welcome back Pastor Leo Robinson this summer! After attending Central Michigan University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Community Development, Leo was called to serve as Lead Campus Pastor of the now GOOD Church, in Flint, MI. Even though Flint has been named one of the most violent cities in the country, Leo and his wife feel that there is no better time and place to be in ministry, in this so-called dying city. He believes ministry starts at home, while he and his wife "Mio" make it a priority to lead their family of four in confidence according to God's Plan.

MISSIONS

The Atkins

The Atkins grew up attending Simpson Park Camp. On Missions Day at Simpson Park Camp in 2005, they accepted the call to serve people in Guinea-Bissau. They have been serving there for the past 14 years. The Atkins run a machining and metal fabrication workshop; they modify, design, and build machines for a variety of development projects, such as streamlining production at the drinking water filter factory. They teach and disciple at the church they attend and build relationships with their community while they share the gospel. They have three wonderful children, Savannah, Nathaniel, and Miriam. Jason and Emily are partnered with Hope Remembered, a non profit that is working in Guinea-Bissau.

CHILDRENS

Unique Kidz Ministries

Dan and Mariah Boll reside in Slippery Rock, PA with their two kids Payton and Logan. Pastor Dan and Pastor Mariah are children's and family evangelists - who use games, music, Bible stories, puppets, scripture memorization, and a whole lot of fun to teach people of all ages about Jesus Christ. Pastors Dan and Mariah aim to share the love of Jesus with everyone.

WORSHIP

Connor Roy

Connor Roy is an award-winning singer/songwriter and Worship Leader from Detroit, MI. Connor has had the privilege of sharing the stage with a number of artists both locally and nationally, including Third Day. He strives to bring a message of hope and love through his music. He says that his faith in Jesus is what motivates him to continue making music.
